

Dear FCC, I am a concerned citizen that worries deeply about the issue facing you. I strongly feel that expanding the ability for media consolidation is real and present danger to our democracy. I urge you to limit, not expand media consolidation. At the very least I urge you to go out and listen to us, the American people, who actually own the airwaves you see fit to distribute, we are, after all, your bosses. Thank you.